Called as the world's most powerful liquid hydrogen rocket, the component is similar to the all-synthetic material that underwent five separate removal and degassing treatments this spring.

Marshall, president of the county commission, advised the board of NASA's interest in the group's proposed plans. It was brought before the commission on Wednesday afternoon of the previous afternoon. The board then took action to have the group's application will be reviewed by the Southern Region during August and that FAA headquarters will review the request in case (Cont. on Page 4-A).

Oblates plan bazaar for this weekend

The Oblate Father's seminary at Pine Hills will be the site of an old fashioned bazaar this Sunday.

In connection with the event, a dance is scheduled for tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. in the Annunciation School, Kilm, and a beef roast at 4 p.m. on Saturday at the seminary.

Thirteen softball teams will compete on Sunday for a giant trophy and additional attractions to the bazaar include booths, games and refresh-plants has been carrying over and water flows freely in times for the opening of schools—the city Bay High and St. Stanislaus College dormitory. In some cases this has meant going "across country" rather than along canals. After their facilities in place, work will return to completing essential canals.

Mayor John A. Spagnola, Mayor and Pablo Griffin, city engineer, conferred for about three and a half hours Monday night with a delegation from the Haneskog County Chamber of Commerce about the canal situation and endeavored to explain what is transpiring.

Representing the chamber at the meeting were Robert Lundquist, Joseph K. Schmitt and Joseph Kern. Griffin said the city administration had a lot of the group if they thought the public would have pronounced that the sewer system had not been undertaken and an improvement made to the water lines.

The city, he observed, occurred that a number of people had moved away when school closed in the spring and suggested this might be attributed to numerous factors besides streets. Griffin said the city sought from the group the definition of "progress" and whether it considered the utility program was within this realm.

meeting concluded and the supervisors dispersed and no such action was taken in the reporter's presence.

Did the supervisors, or a majority of them, have access to secret meeting spending company funds?

They are a growing daredevil boys' movement and brought in a lot of prospective members from all over the city who organized themselves. They elected officers, made uniforms and set up a four-point program—athletics, social Membership is open to high school aged boys. The first meeting is at 7:30 p.m. the first third Tuesday of November at Truett Hall.

Head Start enrollment in progress

Registration for pre-school children in the six area Head Start centers is in progress and will continue through Aug.
31, according to Ray E. Fernandez, project director for Head Start No. 3180.

The new term starts Sept.
1 and preference will be given children four and five years of age. Training is for children of low income families and includes medical and dental care, preparation for the first grade, balanced meals and field trips.

Local centers are at Church of Annunciation School at Kila and at Deaconess School. The project also embraces centers at 624 Tea Garden Road, Handobore; 307 Church Ave., Pace Christianity First Baptist Church on Clark Avenue, Pace Christiana; and Delidale Center on the Delidale-Kila Road.

Closing ceremonies took place at the center Aug. 12 for children who will enter the first grade this fall. Each center receives a program and a warden certificate to the children, including note of performance.

Factor Sweeney Memorial School is the grantees for this project and Rev. P. J. McLean is principal officer. The U.S.
Office of Economic Opportunity provides the funds.

Teen Times

Well, kiddies, your last fleeting moments of freedom are rapidly running out. Although we're still a bit vague as to exactly when and where Day High will begin — a bit of confusion regarding details of the completion date of the new building and when there'll also be a little matter of connecting up some pipes which seem to be causing a bit of inconvenience... and with this, the under-18s of the century, we'll go right on into our last communication from our good friend, Josephine Squattemmala, alias Janz Farnham.

403 Walnut Drive
Salem, Oregon
August 5, 1966

Dear Readers:

If I remember correctly, I once told you of my cousin Zaida Mae—the one who eloped with the garbage man! Now they have their own junk yard, I'm simply delighted for them.

This week I baked poetry. Manly just loves music, manly and good food flavored music. There are never enough to satisfy his hunger completely, however, so I make a large blood pudding also. It's quite filling on a midnight snack. I have heard that the Beatles are not doing quite as well as usual; personally I like the Beatles much better.

Alexander, my Macintosh-Hida Macintosh, has a cover

If you have moved, eloped, cold out, been drafted, been married, bought a car, sold one, wrecked one, stolen one, had company, been visiting, lost your hair, lost your teeth, lost your dog, been in a fight, got an operation, got a new girlfriend, got a new boyfriend... it's NEWS!

Turn it in...

We'll print it!

care of tonalities. When he first came down with it, I thought, how quaint it is to a bit strange, you know, especially as he has a digestive system that never, that means, he also has no tonality.

At the moment I am working on a novel. The book is about a girl between two phenomena. It really cheers one up to write a book.

If any of you dear readers over happen to be in my country, don't forget to drop by and, I say, we'll have a jolly good time!

Manly to making ice cream

BANKERS' DOZEN - Merchants Bank baseball team, who wound up in third slot in Dixie League, capped cup Sunday in City Ball Park when they beat Bay Jockey in week-long tournament. They are, from left, front row, Terry Tate, for my birthday party. Each year I have a little celebration and invite all of my friends. Oh, by the way, you're invited also. Don't bring a present, please. We just watch Thriller or Morpheus (Long distance dream, you know); and eat all kinds of goodies.

As I know you're wondering—I tell you, I'll be 7007 years old tomorrow.

Good wishes to all of you who also have birthdays.

Charlo,

Josephine Squattemala

P.S. If any of you would like to correspond with me, send your letters via my pen pal, Janice Farnham, Box 636, Monticello, Miss. To a friend!

Among the many teen-agers taking in St. Clare's Church fair were Gene Greenwald and his weekend guest, Boyd Haren of Knoxville, Tenn.

Who was the very pretty young lady who was spotted by Larry Cox a few nights ago? We're told that Elaine and Edward are once again a steady twosome.

Leaving for a trip to Florida Sunday were Bill Eubanks, Greg Weger and Ricky Lockhart.

Virginia and Kathy Wehr are visiting older sister Penne Sue and husband Gerald Ross in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Geraldine and Billy have apparently patched up their differences and are inseparable once again.

As almost welcome to Teen Times goes to Jeff Debergort, who celebrated his 12th birthday on Sunday, Aug. 7. Jeff had a very happy birthday on he had also just received the news that he'd been accepted as a student at St. Stanislaus.

Elba Schuyler and John Nelson are sort of engaged to be engaged... he's presented her his senior ring, but plans to attend PRJC, at least, before taking the final plunge.

Kathryn Grabow of Vicksburg was Holly Ruzh's guest last week... although Holly had little time for entertaining, with her Echo job on one hand, and frantic rehearsals for the Little Theater's first musical, The Fantasticks, on the other.

Happy birthday greetings are on the way to Rory and Margaret Mac Dowell... Rory was 16 on Aug. 1st, and Margaret, 17, on the 8th. Another such wish goes to Christine Everett... she celebrated last Tuesday.

CYO members will now hold weekly, instead of bi-weekly meetings, until further notice. Are wedding bells in store for R.J.? And we're told L.L. is gleeful over Tatti's return from Los Vegas.

Diane Grisham and family are getting ready to move to Pensacola, Fla.

Joe Jernigan, Bay High graduate, now stationed with the paratroops at Ft. Benning, Ga., was buzzing around in a brand new sports model when home on leave last week.

The Jacob family is apparently intent on spending all over the universe corner or later, Delta will teach at West Jefferson High in New Orleans come September. Sister Lawrence (Margo) will be at University of Southeastern Louisiana; Vickie, who worked at Coastal Savings during vacation, left Friday for Ponce, Puerto Rico where she will enter Catholic University. She had just received a personal letter from the Dean at Catholic University of America in Washington.

Jamie Arnold to really enjoying her vacation... she's in Dallas, Tex. visiting former Bay resident, Connie Kramery.

Another Ship Island party is being planned by the CYO on Aug. 24. Members interested in going need only contact Don Favre and pay your $2.

Speaking of CYO activities, what's this we hear about the girls' softball team downing the boys in a practice game July 31st?

Coast Guard chief retires to Bay

A retired Coast Guard chief petty officer, veteran of World War II and more than 20 years in the service, has made his home in Bay St. Louis.

He is Peter C. Fausetta, chief petty officer, of 430 Union Ave. who retired this year.

During World War II he served aboard the USS Puritan, which saw heavy action against the Germans in the Mediterranean and Atlantic Ocean, following discharge and a brief period of civilian life he rejoined the Coast Guard in Janary 1945 and was assigned to the cutter Ketchikan out of Mobile, Ala.

Subsequently he saw duty for two years in Alaska and then on the cutter Ketchikan returning to the Gulf Coast for duty aboard the cutter Ketchikan out of Galveston, Tex.

He was promoted to chief petty officer in March 1949 and in May was assigned to the cutter Ketchikan out of Galveston, Tex.

Later in 1954 he was sent to the Coast Guard Academy for duty aboard the training bark Eagle. While aboard the Eagle he made several cruises to Europe and two trips to Bermuda.

Following this tour he was assigned to Hawaii where he served aboard two buoy tenders before returning to the Gulf Coast, for duty aboard the cutter Ketchikan out of Galveston.

With the wide choice of diversions available locally, we really didn't think the populace could come up with a brand new game.

However the game, commonly known as beach watching, has rapidly usurped the popularity of most other sports hereabouts. The activity began with a few members of the Corps treading back and forth across the beach road wearing bright yellow hard hats and large orange life-preservers. Their point of operation was between Nicholson Avenue and the Platanos House. Suddenly two miniature ocean liners, in reality very elaborate dredge boats, which at night glow with enough lights to give the effect of off shore boats, arrived. Then from enormous hoses dirty wet sand began spewing up and almost miraculously land, in the form of hard packed, now near white sand, appeared, and the beach became, not the manner come had predicted, but a gathering place for natives, newcomers and tourists who sit for hours in open minded fascination.

The beach party begins at daylight and the crowd to still overmingling with avid fans long after dark. Some say that Brewster Mollere, head 'sidewalk superintendent' has added a little spice to the diggers work-a-day life by suggesting they just might happen upon Jeanne Lafitte's legendary hoard of gold, rumored to be buried somewhere in the vicinity. Soooooo, . . . if you haven't already joined in the fun, pack up the old lunch kit, toss some drinks in the cooler and you're in business.

As an added attraction

An interesting sidelight occurred when a lady living very close to the scene, who for obvious reasons remains nameless, decided to get a closer look at the dredge boats through a strong pair of binoculars. After bathing and donning sheer night garments she raised the shade and through the open window focused . . . right smack into another set of binoculars. One of the boatmen apparently had the same idea. Needless to say, the shade was hastily drawn and the light extinguished and she returned to her usual nocturnal tv viewing.

On to the week's affairs

Due to circumstance completely beyond our control, like for instance, a sick husband, we were forced to miss the seafood dinner sponsored by the Men's Club of Waveland Methodist Church at Waveland Town Hall Friday night. . . but we must have been about the only one who didn't return home raving about the delicious food, and the building fund should be much healthier as a result of the most successful benefit.

Toddie (Mrs. Lawrence) Jacobi says 'you're never too old!' She so admired daughter Mary Jo's newly pierced ears, that she promptly followed suit and now has two shining golden dots in each ear.

Finally received a communication from our old pal, Marvin Mancil, who writes that he and Marie still miss all the wonderful people here and hope to return some day. The real purpose of his message was to report that former Bay resident James K. (Bud) Glennon was commended by his superior officer for outstanding efficiency in connection with rehabilitating production lines for a crash reactivation program to manufacture TNT for use in Vietnam. He received the award from Col. R. C. Marshall at the Volunteer Army Ammunition Plant in Chattanooga, Tenn. which is where the Mancils now make their home.

We stand reminded

Sorry about that. . . we mean forgetting to mention the other St. Clare's fair workers, ladies who spent two whole days cutting up greens for the salad and Gertrude (Mrs. Larry) Souer, who had sore arms after mixing 200 pounds of potato salad in 50 pound batches. We're grateful to Louise (Mrs. Dave) Marley for her little reminder.

Up and at 'em wishes

Hope you're feeling better wishes go to Lizzie (Mrs. Charlton) Lodner. . . who was taken to Hancock General for treatment of a heart condition Friday night; to Henry Favre, a patient in the same hospital. . . but sufficiently ambulatory to render company and comfort to the . . . resident to Mrs. Luther Perkins, who was released from Gulfport Memorial on Friday; to L. A. Ogden's mother, discharged from the same hospital, the same day, and to T. A. Smith, he's in room 211 at Gulfport after suffering a broken leg in a fall at his home on Thursday, Aug. 11.

Sporty things

Ames Kergsten caught a 25-pound red fish when he and Joe Kern fished in the Louisiana marsh a couple of Wednesdays ago.

Family guests

Lots and Henry Kothmann had as recent weekend guests his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kothmann and twin daughters, Judy and Jody, of Fort Worth, Tex.

Irma and Johnay Leven returned from their Houston, Tex. vacation looking relaxed and rested and report having a really wonderful time on the week long trip.

Animal notes

Little Dottie Viguerie has been inconsolable since her eight month old bull terrier puppy, Sergeant, disappeared from the Viguerie's Nicholson Avenue home Saturday, Aug. 13. Sergeant is black and white, very friendly and affectionate. Unfortunately his tag was broken when he managed to get his collar loose, so he is (Cont. on Page 6-B.)

Our regrets

Waveland suffered a tragic double loss last week. . . first the passing of Dr. Adrien (Buddy) Hava on Sunday night, then Mrs. Thomas Brockman died of a heart attack at her home on Thursday night. Both will be truly missed by the many who knew and loved them. Margaret and Henry Prevou said they had a ball while vacationing in and around our old stomping grounds. . . Nashville and Franklin, Tenn.

Doris Sauseneau was gifted with not one but three, large, . . .

Mauffray and Wickton rows are said at Fenton

St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Fenton was the scene for the wedding of Miss Felicia Ann Wickton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wickton, to Raymond Joseph Mauffray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Mauffray, all of Fenton.

Rev. F. Abram performed the wedding ceremony at 2:00 p.m. Sunday before the altar which was bedecked with arrangements of palms, white gladioli and daisies. Miss Vivian Lynn was organist while Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Mauffray and Donald Mauffray sang.

Mr. Wickton gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Albert Wickton, Jr., was matron of honor for her sister-in-law and Miss Carol Wickton, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Thelbert Hardy of Long Beach, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Woodrow Mauffray, Jr., the bride's brother, was groomsmen. Ushering were Albert Wickton, Jr., and Roy Wickton, brothers of the bride.

The reception took place later on the lawn of the Wickton home. Assisting in serving were Misses J.B. Kates, L.A. Cundat, Jr., both of Gulfport, Anthony DiMaggio of New Orleans, all aunts of the bride. Otto Woods and Oscar Peterson. Miss Peggy Jo Kates kept the bride's book for her cousin.

in better laundries... natural gas makes the BIG difference (costs less, too)

Ever wonder why professionally laundered clothes look so snowy white? Small so much more fresh? Some folks would have you believe it's all in the detergent or the blancher. But the professional laundry owner knows better. Much of it is in the hot, hot water (heated by gas, of course) and the gentle drying process (gas dryers, naturally.) Next time you talk to your laundryman, ask him. Next time you visit a do-it-yourself laundry, notice that they're heating the water and operating the dryers with gas. Natural gas makes the big difference. Does the big jobs a lot better. Costs less, too. Do you have a gas water heater and dryer in your home?

Miss Moran is bride of J.T. Ward

Miss Cheryl Barbara Moran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Moran of Lakehurst, became the bride of James Terry Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie Terry Ward of Ocean Springs, in a double ring ceremony at 3 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 14, at St. John's Catholic Church at Lakehurst.

Arrangements of white roses, carnations and mums were placed on each side of the altar. Rev. James Dwyer was celebrant and organ music was provided by Mrs. Ruth Ketchum.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride had her sister, Miss Peggy Moran, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Margie Ward, sister of the groom, and Darlene Rinehart.

David Ward of Ocean Springs was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Tommy and Douglas Moran, brothers of the bride, while Rickie Ward, the groom's brother, and Tommy Moran, Jr., nephew of the bride, were ushers.

The parish hall was the scene of the reception afterwards. Assisting in caring for the guests were Misses Pat Lope of Ft. Worth, Tex., Pat Elliott of Bay St. Louis and the bridesmaids. Mrs. Tommy Moran, sister-in-law of the bride, kept the guest register.

After a honeymoon in Pensacola the couple is now residing at Shady Oaks Trailer Park. The groom is associated with Harris Detective Agency at Mississippi Test Facility. Here from out of town for the wedding were the groom's parents and his grandmother, Mrs. Olivia Ryan of Ocean Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cavalier of New Orleans, close friends of the bride's family.

Among pre-nuptial entertaining for the couple was a rehearsal supper given on the eve of the wedding by the groom's family at his home here. His mother, Mrs. Ward, and his sister, Mrs. Joe Chism, gave a shower in Ocean Springs for the bride and hostesses at a similar party in Bay St. Louis were Mrs. Tommy Moran and Miss Pat Elliott.

Weeks as guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Howard Duff, and family.

Pearlington nuptials join couple

The marriage of Miss Gloria Bell Carver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Carver of Pearlington, to Cecil Ray Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Hughes of Ocean Springs, took place at 6 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 14, at First Southern Baptist Church of Pearlington.

Arrangements of gladioli adorned the ceremony where Rev. Thomas Ware, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony.

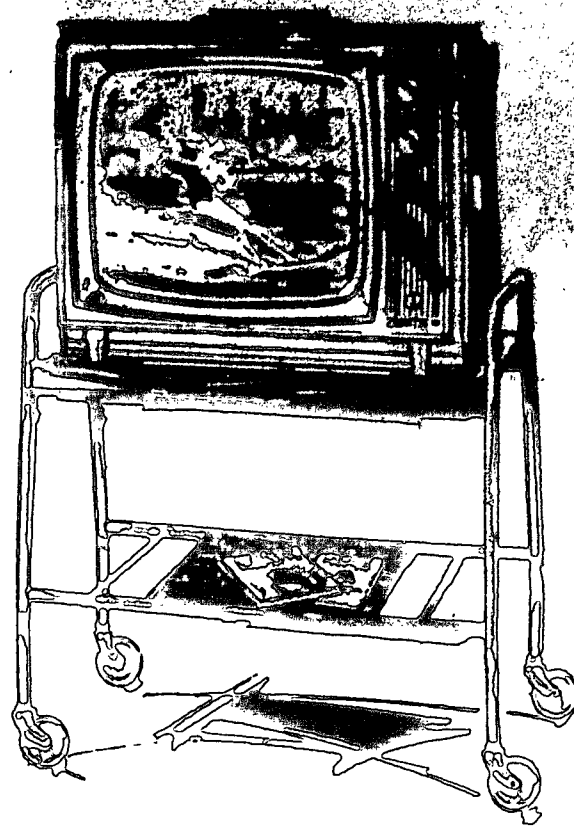

The bride, given in marriage by her father, had a maid of honor her sister, Miss Sharon Carver of Pearlington. Mrs. Mark Williams of Pearlington was matron of honor while Patsy Pearson of Ocean, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Ushers were Timmy Carver, brother of the bride, and Gregory Pearson of Ocean, her cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Carver were hosts for a reception afterwards in the recreation center of the church. Pale pink carnations were used in decoration. The girls were Misses Kathy Wyman, Cynthia McArthur and Jewell Carver.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple is now at home in Pearlington. He has a position at Mississippi Test Facility and she is with Michoud Operations.

Mrs. Pucheu returns from North

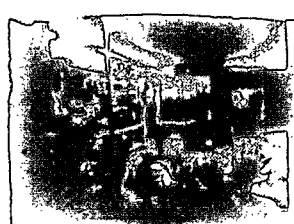

Mrs. Lucas Pucheu has returned to Bay St. Louis after visits with her family in Pennsylvania and Michigan. She went first to see her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tomlinson, in Midleton, Pa., then to see her son, Clois Pucheu and family, near Benton Harbor, Mich., which is in the heart of the fruit belt in that state.

They drove through McIntosh and Klawatha National Parks and saw Upper and Lower Tabernash Falls near Newberry. By ferry they went to Mackinac Island where relatives of Mrs. Clois Pucheu told the Bay St. Louis visitor of the island's history from its settlement by Father Marquette, to the invasion by the British and establishment by the Americans.

Honock General Hospital Auxiliary's annual tea honoring candy strippers and their mothers is set for 2-4 p.m. on Saturday in W.B. Community Center. Program will include presentation of one hundred hours certificates and paper-mâché caps.

of Ft. Macdonac.

The family also went into Canada to see Superior Provincial Park and returned by way of Mackinac Bridge through the lower peninsula of Michigan, Traverse City and Charlevoix on Grand Traverse Bay, then to Chicago from where Mrs. Pucheu left for home.

Sam Ballard claims boycott of Fla. paper

Sam Ballard, a director and publisher of weekly Monroe Record in Palmetto, Fla., and former Bay St. Louis newspaper man, is calling for a boycott of the Record after it published an editorial on July 20 blasting virtually every civic and economic leader in town.

According to the publisher, the boycott started about 15 months ago, while he was in the hospital recuperating from three operations. He attributes the boycott attempt to his enemies against shunners, rotten political practices, and the Manatee County School Board.

"I backed Huey Long in Louisiana," Ballard said, "but this political situation is worse than Huey Long ever was."

He said he has had "two bombs thrown on my front lawn," and that he has been "boycotted by local 'bania, money barons, and politicians' against advertisers in the Record forced him to quit after four years in Palmetto, Ballard's final editor at SAN DIEGO.

Seaman Recruit Darrell M. Corbin, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack D. Corbin of Fort-Hampton, has been graduated from area units of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center at San Diego, Calif.

Ballard painted on my car and house, anonymous calls at night and calls threatening to run me down on the streets."

In his final edition, Ballard concluded by saying "we feel no bitterness, nor any personal animosity toward anyone, unbelieveable as it may appear to many of you. This is because that, while we have lost a business to wicked pressures, we have gained an empire in the hearts and respect of our friends."

Palmetto businessmen admitted there was a boycott against the Record, but would not say who organized it or why.

Hancock sales of U.S. bonds 2nd in state

Hancock County is running No. 2 in Mississippi in sales of U.S. Savings Bonds through June.

Hancock is one of two counties in the state to top the quota for 1966, June sales of $13,533 bring the total to date to $96,092 against a goal for the year of $79,000. That is 121.63 per cent of the amount needed.

Top in the state is Panola County at 187.04 per cent of quota or $392,800 against a goal of $210,000.

In District 8 which embraces Hancock, George County is next in line at 73.29 per cent.

SNAPPERS - A. E. Alexander of Driftwood Motel, left, shows collection of red snappers and groupers he and Robert F. Lohr, right, caught on recent fishing trip to Panama City, Fla.

OPHERS - Displaying pair of jacks caught on Monday, Mrs. Don Coffey has difficulty supporting weight of fish. Measuring close to three and a half feet each, weighed in at 28 and 25 pounds respectively. Location of ground was not revealed.

A WHOPPER - The fish, not story of one that got away, Carl Gustafson, Jr., caught this 25-pound jack recently in Heron Bay out of LaFrance's fishing car, using a small white trout for bait. Last year's record was 26 pounds. Also making the trip on Gustafson's newly acquired 22-foot boat was Richard Indovina of New Orleans.

BURNING DRUM - Proud anglers H.L. Pearson and J. Palmer display 45-pound drum fish caught on 12-1/2 hour line last Saturday near Nichols' Camp on Jordan River. Fish took 45 minutes to land and toiled angler's 300 feet from place first hooked.

DOUBLE DATE - Chisum Piazza of Bay St. Louis, Fla., and two whopping black bass (green trout) caught recently on Arnold Wells' Lazy W Ranch near Kilbuck.

PICAYUNE - Bay St. Louis, Miss., is pleased to welcome this weekend to the annual Picayune League Invitational tournament. Fishing will be Southern Catfish Bay, Trinidad Bay, provided Frank and some of his players from Houston, Tex., are the ones.

Big house wins league pennant

Baseball or softball is like shifting sands. Southern Realty led the Men's Softball League for virtually the whole season and wound up the regular season a full game ahead of second place Chateau Sea. They looked like a dead clinch to win the pennant.

But after the play-offs last week who got the pennant? Chateau Sea. And Trapani is runner-up. Trapani has the distinction of having knocked out Southern Realty in a best two out of three series and would have won the pennant if Chateau Sea's Larry Johnson hadn't knocked one out of the park with two men on in the bottom of the last inning of the final game of the year. The Traps were leading by one run at the time.

It was probably the hardest hit ball of the season, sailing directly over the center-fielder's head. Chateau Sea sponsor George Seuzeneau is still looking for the ball.

In opening night play, league leading Southern Realty beat Trapani, 7-5, in a hotly-contested game Monday night and Anthony went on a hitting spree to defeat Chateau Sea 13-8. All games were rained out Tuesday but Wednesday Trapani beat Southern Realty and Chateau Sea beat Anthony to even both series at 1-1.

Thursday, Chateau Sea knocked out Anthony and Southern Realty and Trapani were tied, 2-2, when the game was called in the sixth because of rain.

Friday, Trapani eliminated the mighty Realtors but Chateau Sea defeated the Traps in the first of the best two out of three series for the pennant.

Saturday, Chateau Sea took the measure of the Traps 11-7 and it was all over until next year. Winning battery was Bruce Cox on the mound and Ronnie Maurigi behind the plate. Gus Almes got the loss.

Echo leads in summer bowling

With the final games slated for tonight, the Sea Coast Echo holds an undisputed lead in the Miss Fits Summer Bowling League. Next Thursday the Fall and Winter League opens. Mrs. John C. Glover, Jr., secretary, announced.

Standings are: Echo, 29-7; Jitney Jungle, 24-12; Smith TV, 17-19; Mestayer Lumber Co., 15-21; Mary Carter, 12-24; Ne-calse, 11-25.

Last Thursday's results: high individual game, Betty Hale, 226; Edna Vassalli, 213; Vivian

Schaefer, 209; series, Hale, 596; Vassalli, 562; Margaret DeHaan, 552; high team, game, Jitney Jungle, 740; Smith TV, 738; Mary Carter, 725; high team series, Echo, 2,020; Jitney Jungle, 2,016; Mestayer, 1,994.

ALUMNI DONATIONS

Millions college alumni gave more than $100,000 to the college this year, according to Neal Cirioli, fund chairman. Amount broke all records in history of 74-year-old institution.

Football opener set for Sept. 2

It's only eight days from today. The opening of the football

Big guns fail to sink Bay

Two famous Ladners, Wendell and Berlin, went all out for Necoles Crossing Sunday in an attempt to beat the Bay St. Louis baseball team but the Bay lads won the opener of a double-header, 9-5, on the old Dedeaux School diamond.

Wendell got two hits, got a homer with one aboard and Berlin hit a triple with one on but it wasn't enough. Claude Yarborough was winning pitcher and also slammed out a triple. Jackie Strong went two for two for the winners.

In the finale against Standard, Doug Foster had a no-hitter going but the game was called on account of rain in the third inning. The score was Bay St. Louis 5, Standard 1, when the ump called it quits. Standard scored on a walk and an error.

Tom Mitchell, manager of the Bays and president of the Pony League, said his team is ready to take on any team at any time and any place. He can be contacted at Industrial Enameling Plant or the Echo.

SSC coach bewails team.

Along with 99 per cent of the football coaches' fraternity, St. Stanislaus mentor Billy Murphy is singing blues over the whole backfield, Larry Boudreaux, Rusty Iudlin, Bud Antin and Johnny O'Boyle.

These lads will be sorely missed but he still has Ricky Ouslet who was slotted for the quarterback spot last season but broke his leg and was replaced by O'Boyle who was the surprise of the year in the strategic position.

The rest of the backs are promising but relatively inexperienced. Al Jacob, Mickey Pugh, Harold Ross and Ronnie Ginn are some of the names that will make headlines this year.

Although thin in replacements, Murphy is counting on a strong line with returning lettermen Dan Griffin, Nelson Saucier, Rene Guas, Mike Meyers, Neil Acree, Mario Lovise,
